

MIDYEAR REPORT 2023

---

Evynn Richardson,
Vice-President and Southeastern Representative

INTRODUCTION

This report will consist of the major highlights of my term based on the months I have served thus far.

As Southeastern Representative for the National UNITY Council Executive Committee, I hope to build community ties between UNITY, registered youth councils, and Native youth in my region.

I hope to continue to grow the involvement of the Southeast and build a good standing with UNITY as a whole.

MIDYEAR HIGHLIGHTS

August

Shared space with Indigenous women of Virginia in a tattoo circle and also discussed UNITY with Native youth at Nansemond powwow

September

Protested in DC against the Mountain Valley Pipeline that was running through predominantly Native communities, specifically in the Southeast

October

Led an Indigenous wellness session with the Northeast regional representative for our partnered regional meet-up

November

Attended the White House Tribal YouthForum with young Native leaders on a natiopnal basis

Attended the inargural White House Native American Heritage Month Celebration

Showcased artwork in the Duke Indigenous Artshowcase and Gala

December

Worked with the NC Native American Youth Organization to help workshop their annual summer conference

PÍ:LAHÚK/THANK YOU!

It has been a pleasure serving as the Southeastern Representative and Vice President of the NUCEC and I can't wait to see what the rest of my term holds for me and all the Native youth I come into contact with.
